Another quarter of strong results

Improved | Declined

TOI[1]	▼ VND 24.4 Tn -5.2% YoY	▪ Single-digit decline YoY in TOI in 1H25 was mainly due to interest rate competition, placing pressure on NIM and non-repeat of 1H24 trading income ▪ In 2Q25 Techcombank delivered over VND3.0 tn NFI, continuing to be the largest generator of fee income in the system
PBT	▼ VND 15.1 Tn -3.2% YoY	▪ PBT in 2Q25 reached VND7,899bn ▪ This was the highest ever PBT, tracking FY guidance and extending long-term growth trajectory
ROA (LTM)	▼ 2.2% 6M24: 2.6%	▪ Strong profit generation enabled market-leading ROA
CASA[2]	▲ 41.1% 2Q24: 39.2% 1Q25: 39.4%	▪ CASA ratio returned strongly above 40% mark, thanks to both corporate and retail CASA with the latter being driven by success of Auto-earning 2.0, merchant and other compelling transaction propositions
NPL	▲ 1.32% 2Q24: 1.28% 1Q25: 1.23%	▪ Organic NPL was broadly stable at 1.05% (vs. 1.06% at 1Q25) ▪ Credit cost continued to lower to 0.6% or 0.4% net of recoveries (from 1.1% and 0.9% respectively in the same period last year), with a healthy 106.4% coverage ratio
CAR	▼ 15.0% 2Q24: 14.5% 1Q25: 15.35%	▪ CAR remained high at 15% despite strong credit expansion in 2Q

Notes: for this slide: P&L items are numbers in the reporting period i.e., 6M25, BS items are at the end of the reporting period ; 1. TOI including recoveries; 2. In line with their financial nature, Auto-earning 2.0 balances are included in the "Savings Account" component of CASA

Basel II CAR	14.5%	15.0%
CASA ratio	39.2%	41.1%

- Highest ever second quarter PBT driven by (i) strong credit expansion and slight improvement in NIM in the quarter, (ii) strong NFI; and (iii) robust control of both operating expenses and credit costs
- Industry-leading balance sheet strength: stable organic NPL, loan loss reserve ratio of 106% and capital adequacy ratio (CAR) of 15.0%

Notes: 1. TOI excludes recoveries. 2. Refer to NFI calculation on slide 17. 3. Bank-only credit growth per SBV

A strong quarter on both QoQ and YoY basis

- 2Q25 PBT was 9% higher QoQ and nearly 1% higher YoY, which was commendable given record-high results in 1H24
- Provision expense improved significantly to ~VND1tn in 2Q (-38% YoY), contributing to bottom line delivery

Wealth bank: increasing contribution thanks to unique propositions across ecosystem

- Growth observed in most products vs 2Q24, especially bond-related, insurance and affluent banking services
- Robust investment distribution momentum thanks to bond distribution activities on the back of a surge in bond underwriting volume
- Strong AUM momentum, driven by compelling diverse propositions with significant growth observed in bonds, term deposits and equities

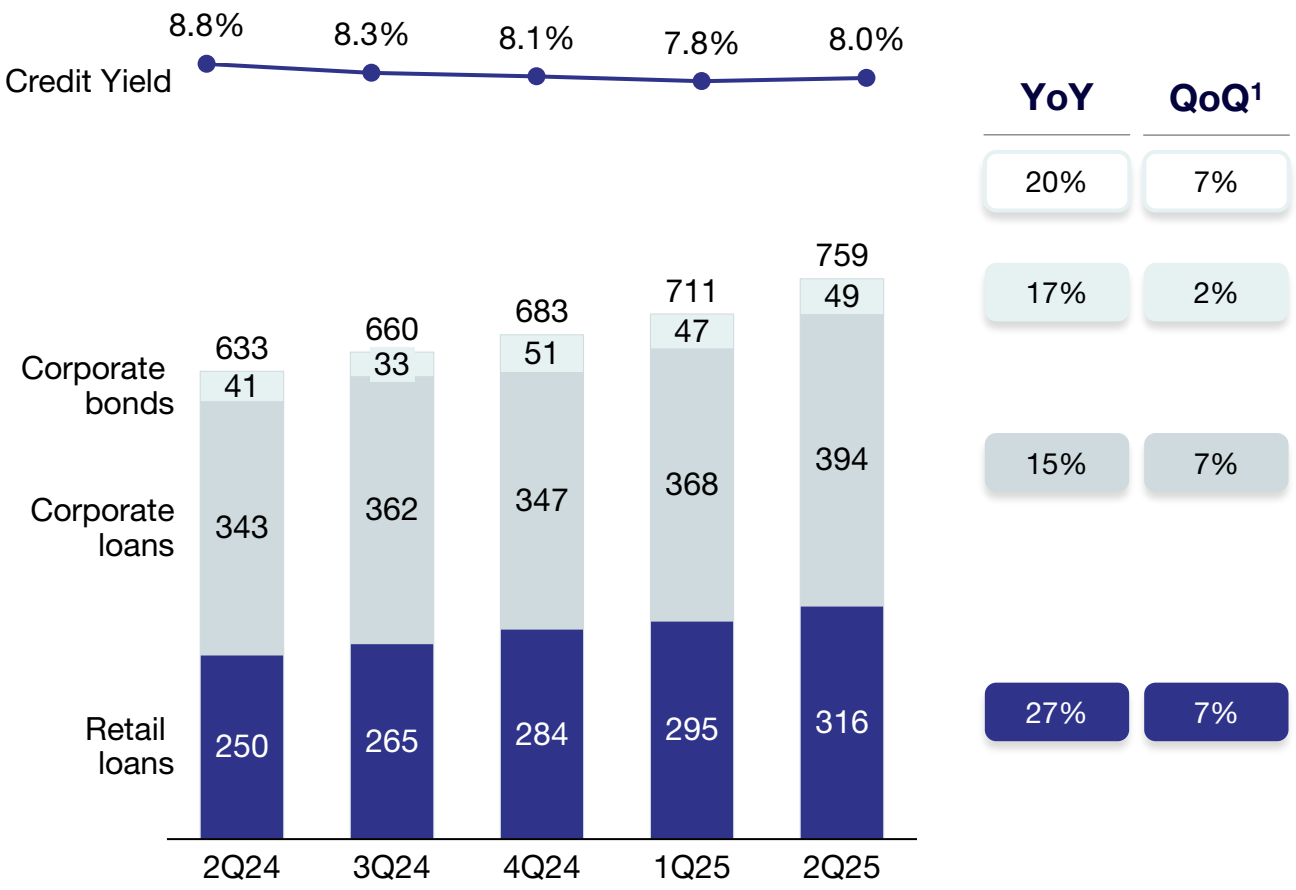
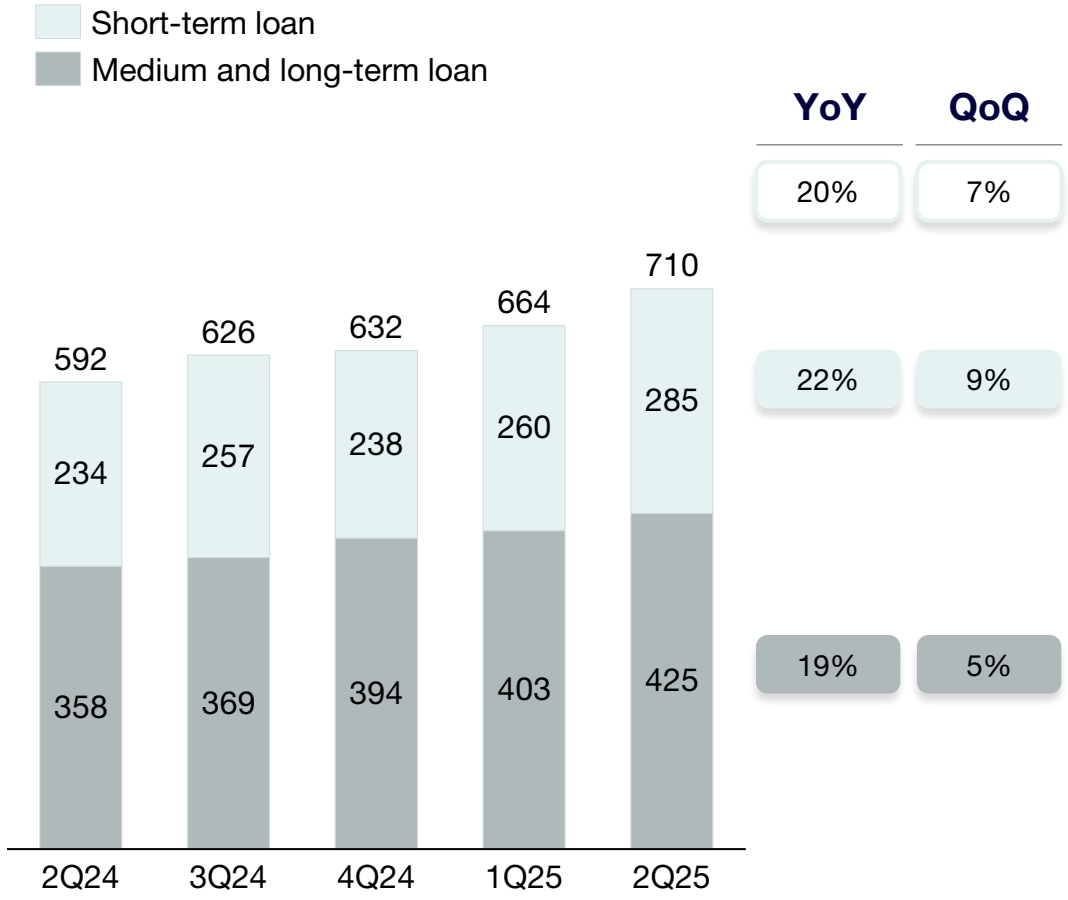
Strong credit disbursement in 2Q

- Strong disbursement in 2Q was driven by both corporate and retail customers
- Share of short-term loans continued to increase

Credit mix (VND Tn)



Loan mix by term (VND Tn)

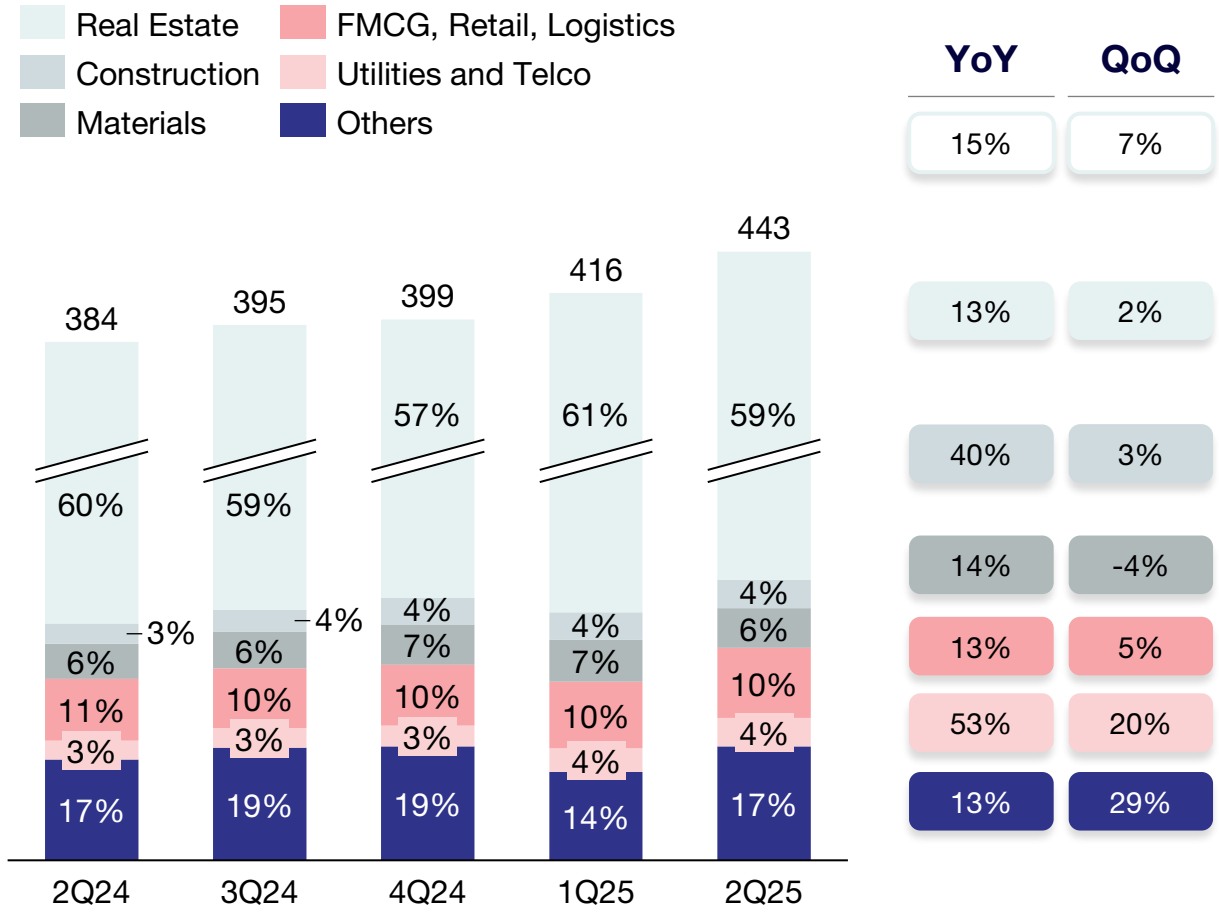


Notes: 1. Total credit provided on consolidated basis. At the bank-only level credit growth, per SBV regulation, was 10.6% YTD for 6M25; 2. Retail loans include margin lending by TCBS

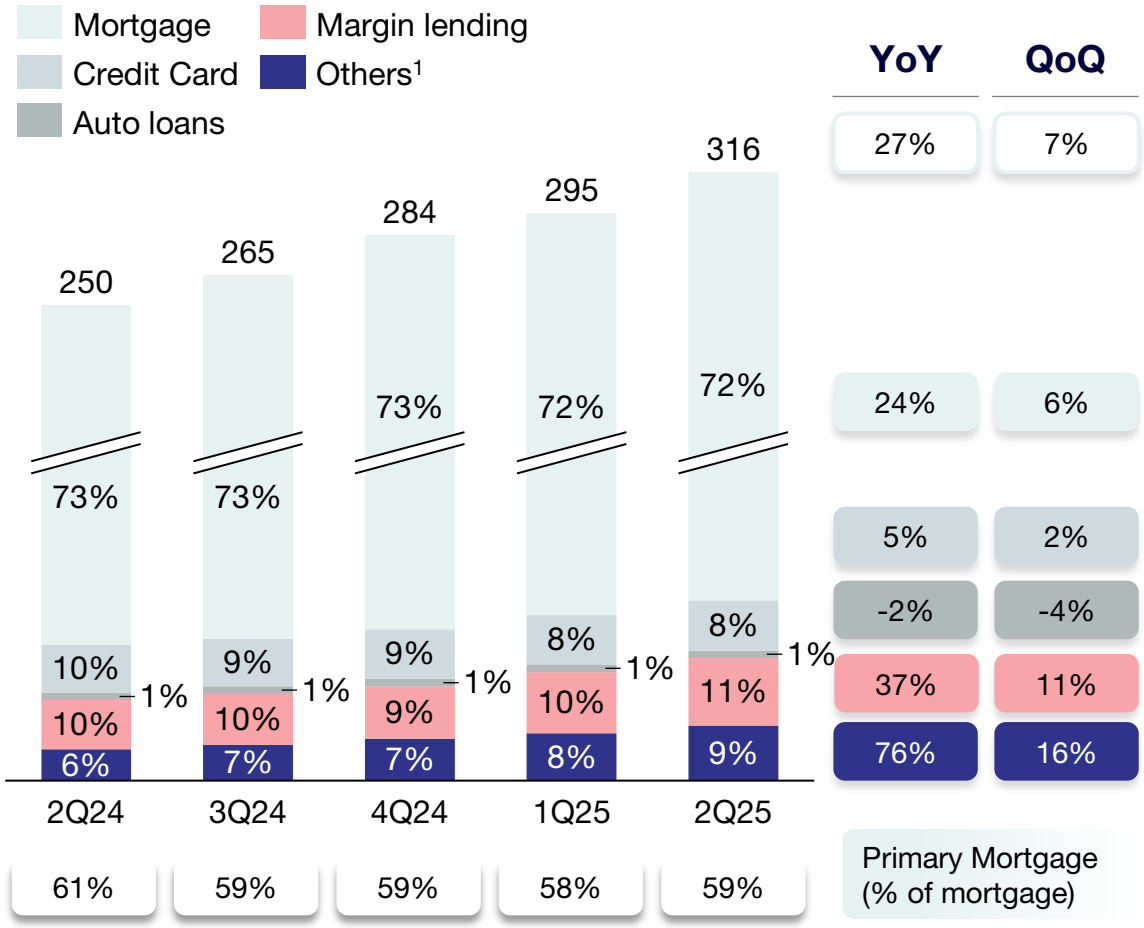
Further progress in credit diversification

- Strong corporate credit expansion was led by disbursement in utilities and FMCG sector while RE book only inched up by 2% QoQ
- Within retail banking book the share of margin and unsecured lending continued to progress, in line with the Bank's risk appetite. “Others” expansion was driven by compelling propositions of merchants and households as well as integrated offerings for businesses and their owners

Corporate loans + bonds by sectors (VND Tn)



Retail loans by products (VND Tn)



Notes: 1. Includes home equity, households, Personal Installment Loan (PIL), and other retail lending - including loans to micro- and emerging SME customers

Real estate value-chain: quarterly mortgage disbursement reached ~VND30tn again

- New high-rise supply in HCMC++ area remained low, less than 2k units in 1H25, and is estimated to range 7-10k for FY25
- Northern market continued to be busy with strong supply and high absorption rates
- With that, 2Q25 mortgage disbursement increased to VND29.9tn. While total mortgage deceased YoY, primary mortgages were up +12% YoY
- Prepayments were stable at ~VND15tn per quarter despite continued competition thanks to attractive bundling propositions to retain customers

Strong CASA-led deposit franchise

- CASA ratio improved to 41.1% thanks to 7.9% QoQ expansion in CASA while TD was flat
- This was achieved thanks to the success of Auto-earning 2.0, merchant offerings and payment proposition
- Techcombank has been continuously maintaining No. 1 market share on NAPAS 24/7 for both inbound and outbound transactions since July 2024

Deposit rate and deposit by type (VND Tn)

NFI generated over VND3tn in a quarter again

- Strong NFI in 2Q was attributable to over VND1.4tn from investment banking services, with robust performance across all key business lines namely brokerage & agency management, margin lending, bond underwriting & distribution and other IB services[4]
- In July, Techcom Life Insurance was licensed by the Ministry of Finance (MoF) with charter capital of VND1.3tn – a significant milestone in TCB's expansion into insurance business, coming after the successful stake increase in Techcom NonLife Insurance (TCGIns) earlier this year[5]

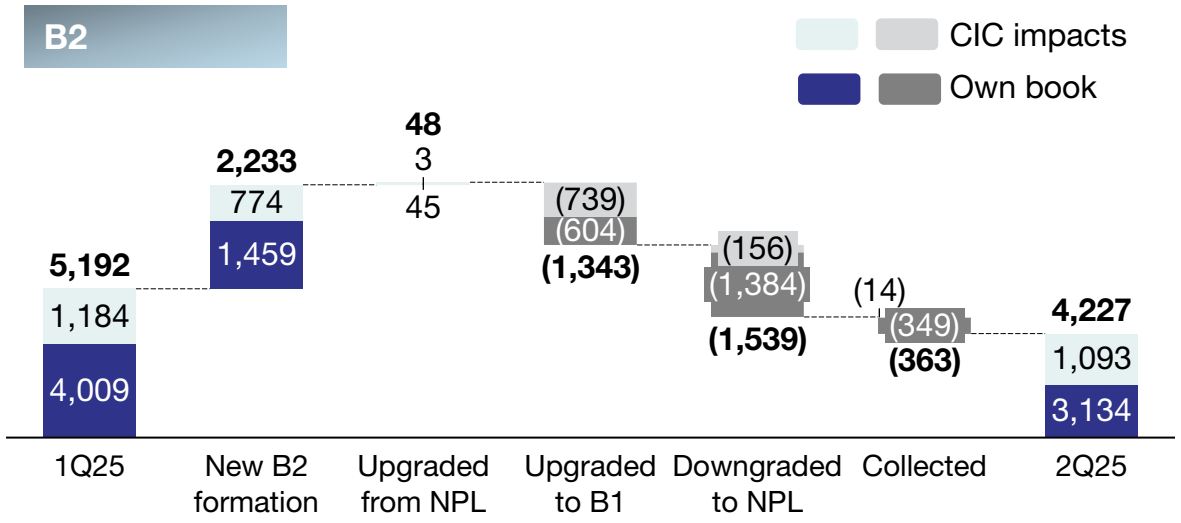
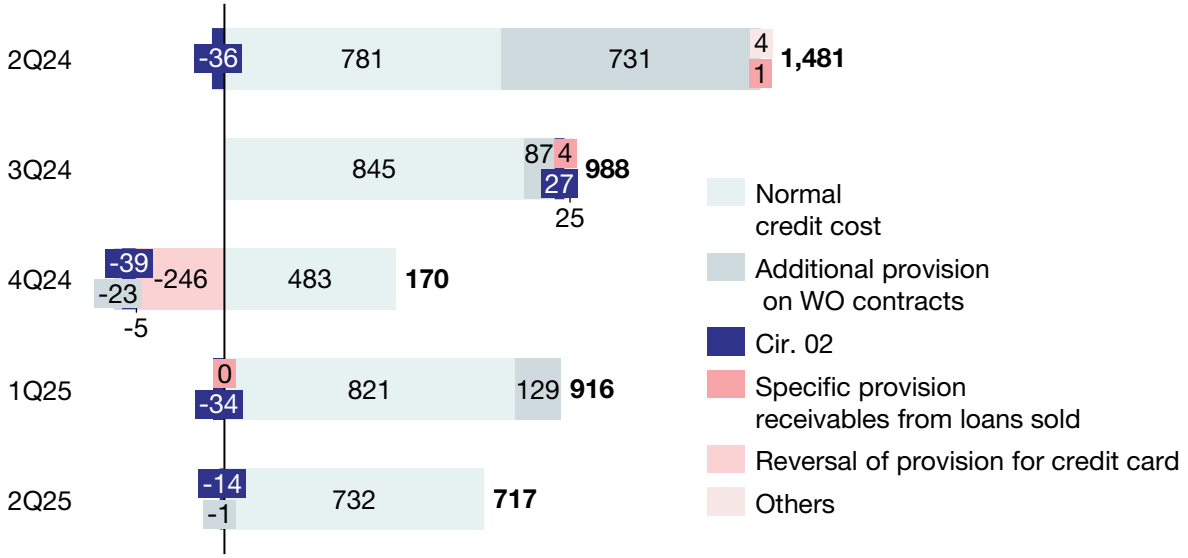
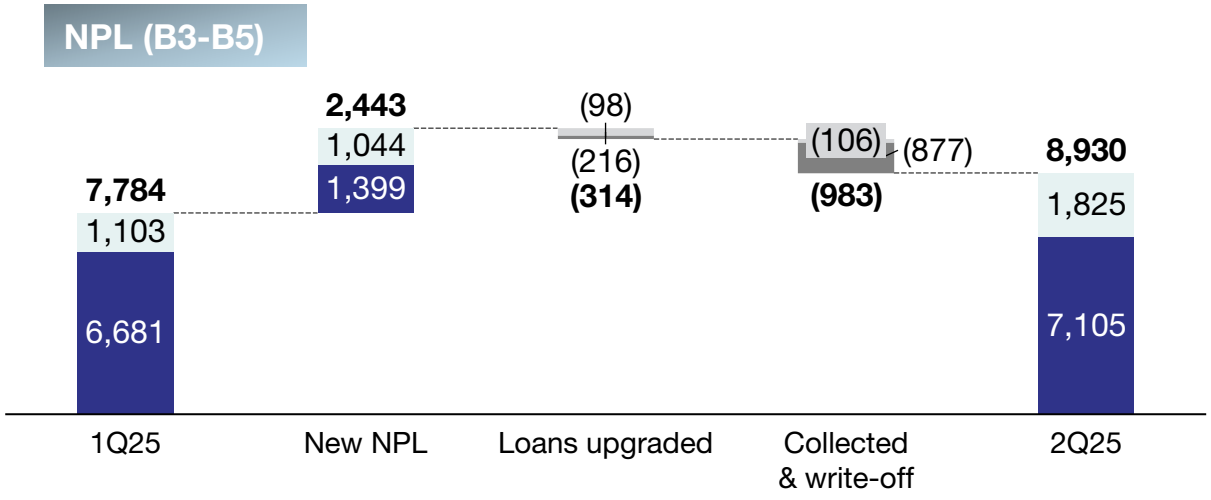
- Both own book's new B2 and NPL formation slowed down in 2Q25 (e.g., to VND1,459bn and VND1,399bn in 2Q25, from VND2,550bn and VND1,793bn respectively in 1Q25)
- CIC-driven NPL formation in 2Q25 however increased to VND1,044bn (vs. VND389 bn in 1Q25) due market volatility since last year



Specific provision expenses movement (VND bn)





Capital and liquidity positions remained robust

- CAR remained among highest in the industry
- Stable funding from customers stayed at high level of c.77%

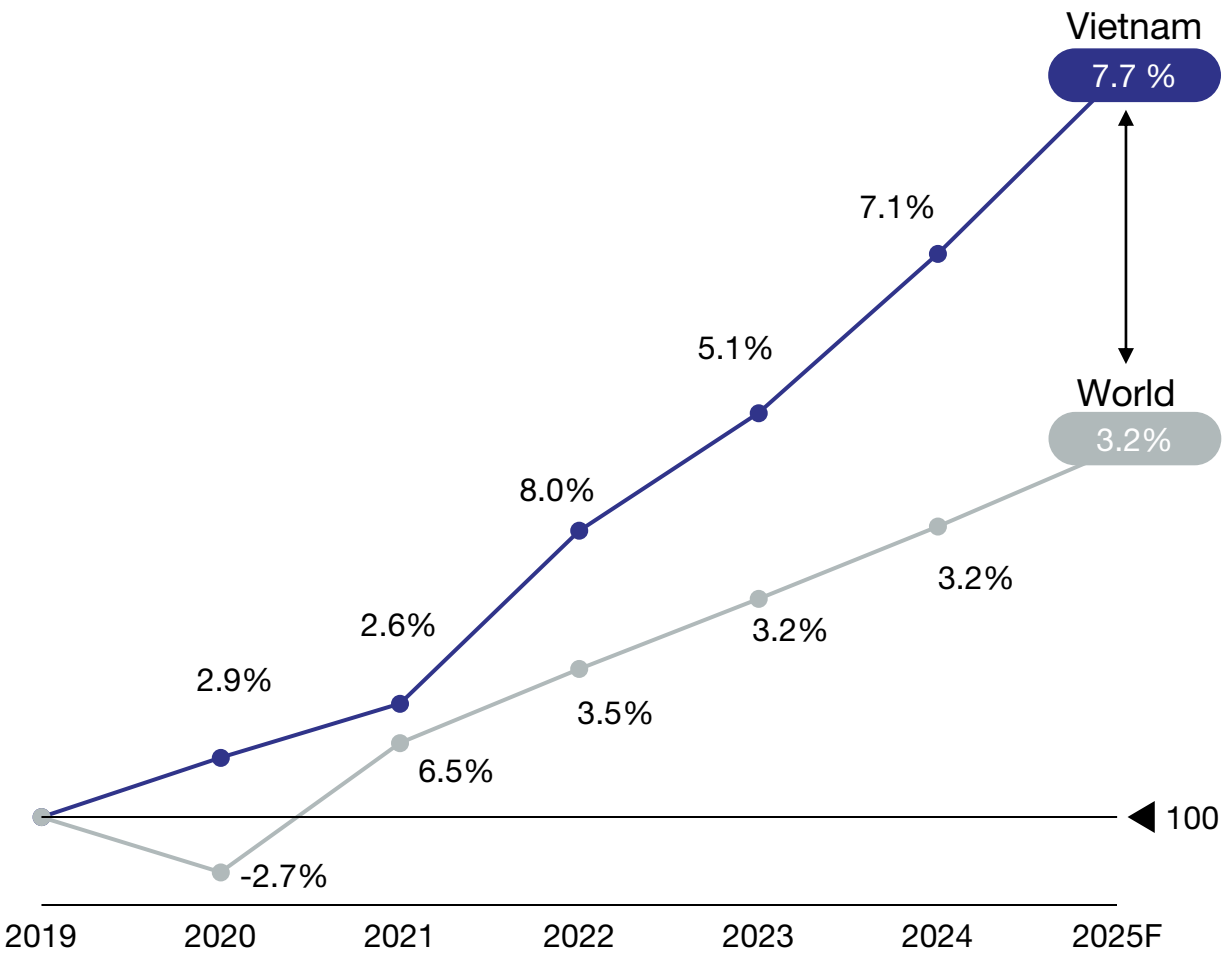
2025 Outlook

Internal GDP growth forecast of 7.7% for FY25

Real Vietnam & World GDP

(Real GDP growth indexed to 100% in 2019, YoY growth each year)



Sources: Past GDP growth: VN – GSO; Global – IMF. GDP growth forecast: VN – TCB; Global: IMF

We revised our 2025 GDP forecast up to 7.7% following tariff announcement, which reflected:

- Strong export activities supported by external demand
- Strong and resilient inward FDI thanks to:
  - Extensive Government's support (Investment support fund for high-tech businesses, especially AI and semiconductor industries)
  - Improved infrastructure: enhanced logistics (Long Thanh Airport, traffic routes), 400+ industrial parks and stable energy/electricity supply
  - Competitive energy and construction cost compared to other countries in the region
- Increasing public spending
- Recovering real estate market

FY25 vs. FY24 guidance unchanged as 6M25 outcome was in line with expectation

TCB Share price performance

TCB share price performance in 1H25

- TCB's outperformance reflects investors' bullish view and positive responses to (1) strong set of results in 1Q25, management's unchanged guidance on the FY25 PBT upon news on reciprocal tariff in Apr; (2) TCBS IPO; (3) more information about ecosystem plays[4]
- Daily turnover in 1H25 increased to VND 616bn, an increase of 36.6% vs. that of FY24
- Techcombank was included in the Vietnam Sustainability Index (VNSI20) by Hochiminh Stock Exchange in 2025 review, a recognition of Techcombank's commitment to sustainability and development of the market, in line with market upgrade expectation
